

Britannica[®] School

at ST DOMINIC'S COLLEGE

What is Britannica School?

Britannica School is a reliable, up-to-date and age-appropriate information resource for school students. You can discover encyclopedia articles, journals and periodicals, multimedia, primary sources, games, and other learning resources that are subject aligned to support your research. There are three different reading levels to choose from; 1 - basic, 2 - moderate and 3 - complex. You choose what best suits your needs.

Which subjects do I use Britannica School for?

St Dominic's College provides free access to Britannica School for all students. There are three levels to support your learning Primary Kinder - 4, Middle Years 5 - 8 and High Years 9 - 12. Britannica School is used for all subjects to conduct research for class work and assessment tasks.

How do I login to Britannica School?

Click here or use the below access details: Login

USERNAME: stdocol

PASSWORD: trial

URL: <https://school.eb.com.au>

How do I use Britannica School?

Apart from being really easy to navigate, the Britannica School database includes trusted sources with accurate information and authoritative references. For any search it provides results across its various formats; dictionary entries, images, videos, articles, magazines, recommended websites, audio clips, primary sources and ebooks.

Here are some of the ways you can discover content in Britannica School:

- Search by word or phrase
- Explore Topic to learn more about people, places, past and the present
- Browse Subject such as plants and history
- Animal Kingdom explores animals by groups, by habitat, or by name
- Biography Browse to learn more about people and access full biography, images and more
- World Atlas search for maps and country profiles

Click here to view the Britannica School information video